

Whoooo'll Bead for Owls?

Beading Competition

Competition Rules

- Work must be finished at the time of receipt of the application.
- You may enter up to 3 pieces for one $25 entry fee. Each will be judged separately. The piece entered in the application will be the piece that will be exhibited at the International Owl Center (IOC) if the piece is selected by the jury for the show.
- As this is the first show, you may enter pieces done in any previous years.
- A significant portion of the piece submitted must contain beads (preferred) or other jewelry making materials (stones, wire, fabric, found objects). The jurors will make the determination if a piece meets this criteria.
- Beads and other materials may be sewn, glued, wired or otherwise attached.
- At least one and not more than 5 photographs of each piece must accompany the application.
  - If applying on-line: File format: JPEG or GIF. No smaller than 1920 pixels on the longest side. 96 ppi/dpi (NEW standard web resolution) File size 5MB maximum. Most iPhone and smart phone can take photos at this resolution.
  - If using written application: You may include up to 5 photos. Please label each photo with a photo number (1 to 5) and the title of your piece (not your name). If you would like your photos returned, please make sure that the self-addressed stamped envelope you included is large enough for them and a letter regarding the jurors decision.
- Maximum size for 2-dimensional pieces is 10"x13"x3".
- For 3-dimensional pieces such as sculpture, the maximum size is 36"x 36".
- Garments and wearable art must be life-size or smaller.
- The jury will award points for originality, design, use of color, experience level and technical ability.
- The jury will have the right to award more prizes.
- Decisions of the jury will be final.
